COTTOLENE.

HEALTH

is linked to COTTOLENE. This great shortening improves your health because it improves your food; makes it more digestible, nutritious, palatable. It is destined to drive from the kitchens of the world that impure, unhealthful, unclean, product called lard, which has done so much to make us a nation of dyspeptics.

COTTOLENE

Rightly used, becomes as indispensable in every well regulated home as flour, sugar or salt.

The genuine Cottolene is sold everywhere in one to ten pound tin. With our trade-mark—"Cottolene" and deer's head in cotton-plant wreath—on every tin. Not guaranteed if sold in any other way. Made only by

The State Board of Dental Examiners who have been in session at the Capitol for several days, completed their labors yesterday afternoon, and adjourned until the next morning to the practical examination of the sixteen candidates for licensure in this State. The result of the examination will not be made known until next week, as Dr. E. N. Rust, of Alexandria, one of the members of the board, has been unable to attend on account of the sickness and subsequent death of his father-in-law, and the examination will therefore have to be mailed to him for his approval.

To Extradite Joe Yeates.

The Governor on yesterday issued a requisition on the Governor of the State of New York, who is charged with malicious wounding, with intent to maim, disfigure, and kill. Yeates is wanted in New York, and he is now in the hands of W. H. Buckner in December, 1855, while the latter was trying to arrest him for a misdemeanor. The accused is now in custody at Woodsford, O.

Escaped Convict Recaptured.

David Stiltnier, the convict who escaped from one of the penitentiary guards a few nights ago while being brought to the State Prison from Buchanan county, where he was convicted of manslaughter, and who was sentenced to imprisonment, has been recaptured, and is in jail at Farmville. He will probably be brought here to-day.

A LARGE JUDGMENT PAID.

Case of Seddon Against Rosenbaum
at an End—Thomas Seddon against M. Rosenbaum, for specific performance of an agreement, in which the Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia decided that the plaintiff of Rosenbaum was entitled to the sum of $23,128.34, with interests and costs, was brought to an end in the Law and Equity Court yesterday. Arthur Rosenbaum, the defendant, acknowledged the receipt from the plaintiff of the amount of his claim, as determined by the court. The case was sent to compel Mr. Rosenbaum to deliver to Mr. Seddon a certain number of shares of Richmond and Danville railroad stock, which the gentlemen, with friends from Richmond, were on a railway train between here and Alexandria, when the interesting case was printed in the Dispatch a few weeks ago.

Equity Court yesterday R. A. Trice brought suit against John T. Anderson for $300.

L. H. White instituted suit against the Richmond Telephone and Electric Company for $50 damages.

J. H. Busby & Co. instituted suit against Virginia Willams to recover $20 damages.

J. S. Moore & Sons instituted suit in the City Circuit Court against H. T. Moore.

A divorce was granted in the Law and Equity Court yesterday separating Nannie E. Williams and Walter Williams. The husband, a colored man, Lewis (colored) was given fifteen days in jail on a charge of stealing ten pounds of sugar from his wife.

The wife, Nannie E. Williams (colored), was charged with being a party to the theft, was discharged.

"Uncle" George Stephens, who has been a familiar figure in and about the Richmond hotels, has lived here more than half a century, died at his home, on Duval street, Thursday morning at 4:30 o'clock.

He was born in Hanover county, in the early winter of 1820. His father and mother being gardener and housekeeper respectively. He was born in the Lyons of that county, and being faithful servant, their only son was not placed on the plantation, but was sent to the "great" house to attend to the gentlemen's horses, wait on table, run errands, etc.

He was a great fondness for horses, after his master's death, he was trained for a jockey, and rode for some time. He was well in his teens. At about 17, his parents dying, he came to this city and secured employment as a foot porter.

By strict attention to his work he soon became one of the best drawers of tobacco samples in the city. Commencing as a tobacco merchant and tobacco inspectors, recognizing the usefulness of good samplers, were always ready to give the best. George Stephens was a no trouble in earning wages sufficient to pay for his own hire and to live comfortably. He was well employed by General Peyton Wise, Messrs. N. M. Wilson, Charles D. Hill, James Hutchison, and George A. Harrison.

He was the trusted porter of the Tobacco Exchange. He was married more than forty years ago, and had four children, three of whom and his wife have long since been dead. The remaining six, imitating his example, followed his trade, and connected with a colored newspaper, two teachers in the public schools, and an oldest daughter has been his housekeeper.

"Uncle" George, though 77, had been able to do a good deal of work for some years ago, when he was taken sick, his sickness being gangrene, caused by cutting a corn too deep.

His oldest daughter, the old Virginia servants passes into the great beyond, but whose life is a fitting example to the young of his race would do well to emulate.

The young man Stephens joined the First African Baptist church, and was always a dutiful and useful member. The funeral will take place at this church Sunday morning at 6 o'clock.

Society of Cincinnati.

Dr. George Ben Johnston, Mr. Patrick H. C. Cabell, and John Cropper, Esq., will represent the Virginia Society of Cincinnati at the unveiling of the Washington monument in Fairmount Park, Philadelphia, which has been erected at a cost of $250,000. George Washington was first president of the society, and the fund for the monument was started soon after his death.

The Pennsylvania society will entertain the Virginia society at the Hotel and France at dinner this evening at Horticultural Hall, at which President McDaniel, Governor Wolf, and other distinguished officers of the army and navy will be present. The Virginia society, representing the state of the war, occupies a prominent place in these ceremonies.

Realistic "Cuban Scenes."

The reproduction of the "Cuban War Scenes" on Tuesday night, at the Metropolitan, will be a most interesting and pleasant time for those who will avail themselves of seeing one of the most entrancing and interesting plays now being presented by amateurs in this city. Several new features will be added, and the audience will be able to appreciate themselves from the conviction that the dependencies and hopes of the An-

A Notorious Thief.

A notorious negro thief, named Lucinda Green, was arrested in Manchester yesterday by Detective Gibson. The woman is charged with breaking into Susan Medley's house on last Tuesday night and carrying off a lot of household articles.

The detective recovered a clock, which was among the stolen property, from a Seventeenth street pawnshop yesterday.

League Union Meeting.

The Epworth League Union Council, of this city and Manchester, will hold a special meeting in the Young Men's Christian Association building, beginning at 8 o'clock. This is an important meeting, as arrangements for the June conference of the Epworth Leagues of the Richmond and the West Richmond districts will be completed.

Sunday-School Meeting.

The Baptist Sunday-School Association of Richmond and Manchester will hold its May meeting at Grace-Street Tabernacle, Belvidere and Grace streets, tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. Rev. Eldridge B. Hatcher, of Norfolk, will be among the speakers, and special music will be rendered.

The Dollar and the Man.

The police put their iron clutches on Henry Davis yesterday, because William Cosby, another colored man, charged him with swindling $14 from him. Cosby is a county dork and Davis thought he had a right to come and beat him. He got the dollar, but Cosby got him.

Married at the Parsonage.
The marriage of Mr. Ben. W. Jones and Miss Florence Menzing took place Thursday night at the residence of the Rev. Joel Tucker. Miss Rosa L. Johnson and Mr. A. H. Schwartz were the attendants. Mr. and Mrs. Jones will reside in this city.

Every butcher-shop needs Pearlline. Almost as much as it needs an ice-box. Look at the general greasiness and nastiness around some butcher shops. It isn't that they're less particular there, probably. They're doing the best they can. But they don't use Pearlline—and there are some things that must have Pearlline to keep properly clean, and among these things are meat markets, butcher shops.
